

Program Start

Run and debugging program in android emulator with vs code. The value is start with count: 0

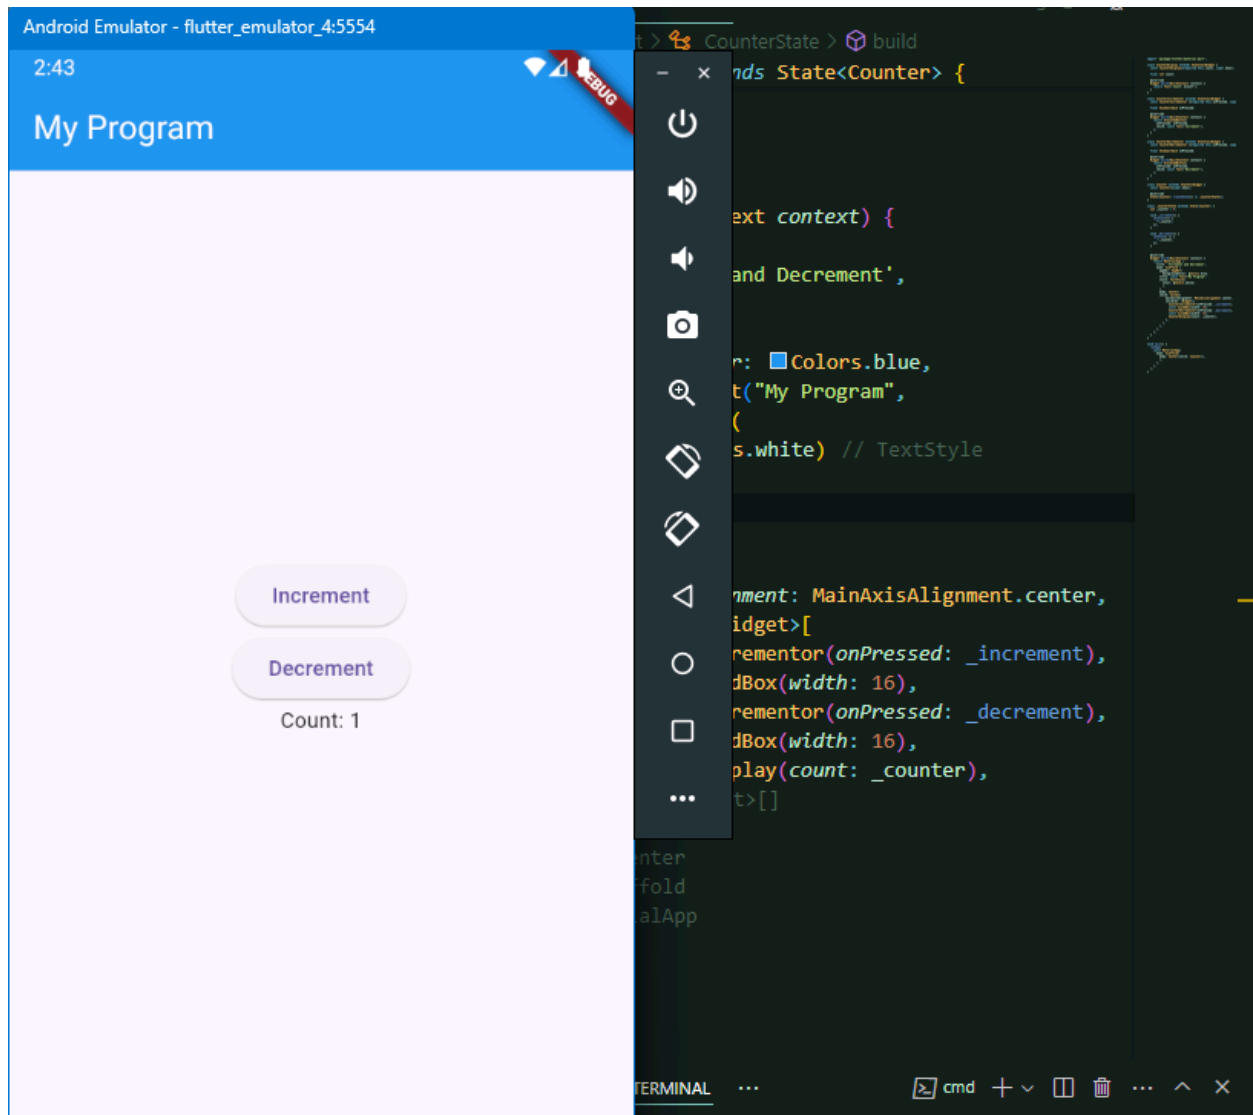

Button

There are 2 buttons in the body of the program. The buttons are used for increasing and decreasing count value. State count will change when the button is pressed.

Increment

Increment button for increasing the value of the counter in the program. This button can press repeatedly to increase count by 1.

Decrement

Decrement button for decreasing the value of the counter in the program. Everytime this button is pressed the count value will decrease by 1.

